- Where the arbitral tribunal is a sole arbitrator, the arbitrator is entitled to an additional 20% of the fee under Schedule B.
- For disputes which cannot be quantified, the fee will be finalised by DAC on the facts of the case.
- Where the award is made within six months of the constitution of the tribunal, the tribunal is entitled to an additional 25% of the total arbitration fee, shared equally by the parties (Rule 32.2).
- The administrative fee is paid by the Claimant at the time of filing the request for arbitration; the Respondent pays its share during the proceedings before the tribunal. The arbitrator's fee is paid by the Claimant at the time of filing the Statement of Claim and by the Respondent at the time of filing its response or Statement of Defence (Rule 35.4, DAC Arbitration Rules, 2023).
- All fees and deposits are payable to the Delhi Arbitration Centre through the payment facility on www.delhiarbitrationcentre.com and are held by DAC (Rules 2 q and 35.6). No payment is to be made to any individual or to any bank account.
- Where the amount in dispute is not quantifiable, the fee is provisionally estimated by the Registrar and may be adjusted (Rule 35.3). Fees for a counter-claim are computed separately on the amount of the counter-claim (Rule 19.3).
